

BARTLETT, PRINGLE & WOLF, LLP
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS AND CONSULTANTS

BRIDGET FOREMAN, CPA

PARTNER

Bridget Foreman joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP in 2003 and became a partner in 2009. She specializes in closely held businesses, high-net-worth individual taxation, and integrated tax planning for multi-generational families.

Her expertise includes partnership taxation, entity structuring, and complex financial transactions such as acquisitions, purchase price allocations, and dispositions. Bridget provides comprehensive tax planning, compliance, and consulting services, coordinating with clients' advisors, including investment managers, attorneys, and bankers.

Before her public accounting career, Bridget spent six years in the hospitality industry, serving in roles from credit manager to internal audit lead at a four-star resort. She also has experience with financial issues faced by national restaurant franchisees, adding valuable insight for her clients.

Bridget earned dual Bachelor of Arts degrees in Business Economics and German Studies from the University of California, Santa Barbara. Her professional affiliations include memberships in the California Society of CPAs (CalCPA) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). She was recognized in Who's Who in Professional Services by the Pacific Coast Business Times (2025), featured on the Charting Her Course podcast (2024), and nominated for the 2025 CalCPA Trailblazer Award.

Committed to community engagement, Bridget serves on the boards of the Lobero Theatre Foundation and Music Academy of the West and is a committee member for CALM.

PHONE (805) 963-7811

EMAIL bforeman@bpw.com

SPECIAL EXPERTISE

Tax and Consulting Services

Real Estate and Hospitality
Industry

Tax Issues for High Net Worth
Individuals

Partnership Taxation

Multi Generational Planning

Cost Segregation