STEPHEN J. KOROSY

MANAGER

Stephen Korosy joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP's Business Consulting team in 2010, bringing with him extensive experience in business analysis and software application sales and implementation. He began his career in ERP software implementation consulting in 1997 and has assisted numerous clients in the successful implementation of their business solutions.

Stephen brings extensive ERP experience, including Acumatica Cloud ERP implementation and support, to BPW's Business Solutions team. He understands the specific needs of the credit union industry, having provided core financial solutions to numerous institutions. With over 25 years in ERP/CRM, his expertise spans project management, system migration, and database administration. He's worked with various platforms, including Microsoft Dynamics GP and CRM, Sage, and Epicor. Stephen prioritizes delivering value beyond software, customizing solutions for operational efficiency. He remains dedicated to mastering evolving ERP, CRM, and BI technologies.

Stephen's experience includes consulting for clients across many diverse industries from finance, retail, manufacturing and distribution, telecommunications, nonprofit, government, professional services, printing, aerospace, landscape and property maintenance, software, advertising and pharmaceuticals.

Stephen received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Phoenix. He resides in Santa Barbara, California with his wife and daughters. In his free time, he enjoys traveling to foreign countries and making a mess of the kitchen in search of that perfect dish.
